

1924, ch. 512.

764A. The fireman at the Central Police Station shall receive an annual salary of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) per year, the said salary to be paid at the same time and in the same manner as other salaries are paid to the employees of the Police Department.

MATRONS AT THE STATION HOUSES.

1884, ch 225. 1892, ch. 536. 1900, ch. 533. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 744.

765. The Police Commissioner of Baltimore shall appoint two suitable women as matrons at each of the station-houses in said city, one for day and the other for night service and one suitable woman as superintendent of matrons for Baltimore City, and two additional suitable women as substitute matrons, and shall provide a furnished room at each of said station-houses for them.

1884, ch. 225. 1892, ch. 536. 1900, ch. 533. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 745.

766. No woman shall be appointed as a matron or superintendent of matrons or substitute matron as aforesaid by the Commissioner unless she shall be recommended to said Commissioner, within three months preceding her appointment, by at least twenty women in good standing in said city in writing, as a suitable person for the position, and the said matrons and superintendents of matrons and substitute matrons shall be appointed to serve for four years, subject to removal for cause after a hearing by the said Commissioner, which is hereby vested with jurisdiction in the premises; provided, however, that said substitute matrons shall perform the duties of matrons when called upon by said Commissioner in the absence or disability of any of said matrons, or as necessity for their services may arise and shall only receive pay during the time of actual service rendered by them.

1884, ch. 225. 1892, ch. 536. 1900, ch. 533. P. L. L. (1888), Art. 4, sec. 746.

767. The duties of each matron shall be to give such care and advice, and to perform such other police duties as may be requisite and proper, to the female persons, male children under fourteen years of age, and refugees in the station-house for which said matrons shall have been appointed or assigned; and the duties of the superintendent of matrons shall be to visit each of the police station-houses twice each week, and to give assistance to the matrons in the performance of their duties, and to make such recommendations from time to time to the Police Commissioner as may promote the efficiency and proper performance of the duties of the matron.

1884, ch. 225. P. L. L. (1888). Art 4, sec. 747. 1892, ch. 536. 1900, ch. 533.
1902, ch. 492. 1908, ch. 173. 1914, ch. 757. 1920, ch. 540.
1924, ch. 446. 1929, ch. 287.

768. Each of said matrons, and substitute matrons when employed, shall receive a salary of thirty-five dollars per week and the Superin-
