

APPENDIX.AN ACT TO ENLARGE THE BOUNDS OF BALTIMORE CITY.

(See notes to sec. 8 of this Appendix.)

1816, ch. 209.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the precincts of Baltimore City, and all that part of Baltimore County which is included in the following metes and bounds, shall be, and are hereby annexed to, and made part of, the City of Baltimore; that is to say, bounded on the north by a line drawn parallel with Baltimore Street in the said city, through a point one mile and a half due north from the centre of Baltimore and Calvert Streets in the said city, and extending eastwardly seven hundred perches from the said point to a public road passing from the Philadelphia Post Road, by the dwellings of Amos Loney, Thomas Worthington and others, and westwardly six hundred and forty perches from the same point, on the east, by a line binding on the east side of said road, to the Philadelphia Post Road, and from the Philadelphia Post Road, by a straight line, to the northeast corner of the Lazzaretto lot, including said lot, and then with the lines of said lot to the Patapsco River, on the south by a line drawn from the Patapsco River, at the termination of the last-mentioned line, to the most southern part of Whetstone Point, on the main branch of the Patapsco River, and running with and bounding on the said main branch, excluding the land ceded to the United States on Whetstone Point, for the uses of a fort, to the place called the Ferry Point, being the junction of the said main branch with the middle branch aforesaid, and thence due west to the western side of the middle branch aforesaid, and on the west by a line running from the termination of the last-mentioned line on the western shore of the middle branch, and binding on the said shore to the north of Gwynn's Falls, thence up and with the southwest side of Gwynn's Falls to a point opposite to the mouth of Gwynn's Run, thence with a straight course to the mouth of Gwynn's Run, and thence with a straight line to the end of the aforementioned six hundred and forty perch line.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That all the provisions of the act, entitled "An act to erect Baltimore-town, in Baltimore County, into a city, and to incorporate the inhabitants thereof," and of all the acts supplementary and in addition to the said act, shall be and hereby are extended and applied to the present precincts of the City of Baltimore, and the part of Baltimore County included within the bounds and limits described in the preceding section, and to the inhabitants thereof; provided always, that nothing in this Act shall be construed to prevent any of the turnpike road companies heretofore incorporated, from keeping up any gate or gates now established, or from establishing others as authorized by law, before
