

and the said taxes are hereby inviolably dedicated to the payment of interest and principal; said taxes to be levied and collected as other taxes in said town are levied and collected.

1914, ch. 434, sec. 5.

311. The money for the sinking fund levied annually as provided in the preceding section, shall be deposited by the Commissioners of Greensboro in such bank or banks in Caroline County as shall be designated by them, having a due regard in the said selection of the safety of said bank and the rate of interest to be paid on said deposits; said deposits shall be made to the credit of the sinking fund and shall be drawn by the Commissioners of Greensboro for the purpose of redeeming and paying off the aforesaid bonds and for no other purpose; and should said Commissioners of Greensboro or any other person or persons or body corporate having charge of said sinking funds suffer the same to be diverted or applied to any other purpose than the payment or redemption of the said bonds, he or they shall be individually deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction in a Court of competent jurisdiction, shall be fined in an amount equal to the sum diverted and shall be committed to the County Jail until the said fine and all costs are paid.

312. The Commissioners of Greensboro are hereby authorized and empowered to negotiate, sell or dispose of the bonds hereinbefore provided for or as many thereof as may be necessary, and with the proceeds thereof to erect or provide for the erection, building, maintaining and keeping in repair said waterworks and a plant for same; provided, however, that no bonds shall be sold or disposed of for less than their par value and the said Commissioners of Greensboro are furthermore duly authorized to make all necessary rules and regulations and to pass all necessary ordinances with penalties for their violation, and to do all necessary acts for the proper managing, maintaining and repairing said waterworks, and for the protection thereof, and to acquire by purchase or otherwise, or to condemn all land necessary for the erection and operation of said waterworks and the plant thereof, which condemnation shall be had in the manner prescribed in Article 33A of the Code of Public General Laws of the State of Maryland.
