

entering upon the duties of his office he shall give bond to the Mayor and Common Council, with good and sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by the said Mayor and Common Council in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned that he shall well and truly pay over to his successors in office, or to the order of said Mayor and Common Council, signed by their clerk and countersigned by the Mayor, all such moneys, and shall perform all other duties of his office according to law and the ordinances of said Mayor and Common Council; he shall keep full and correct accounts of all moneys received by him, with the source from which the same were received, and the dates of such receipts, and of the disbursements, and the person to whom and on what account the same were made; and the same person may, in the discretion of the Mayor and Common Council, be appointed clerk and treasurer.

1908, ch. 232, sec. 20A (p. 707).

376. The Mayor and Common Council shall not expend or contract to expend in any one year more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other resources for that year.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 22.

378. The Mayor of said town, by virtue of his office, shall have and exercise all the police powers of a conservator of the peace at common law;
