

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 8. 1884, ch. 13. 1888, ch. 298. 1890, ch. 3, sec. 8.

8. Vacancies happening by non-acceptance, death, resignation, removal out of the county, or disqualification of any of the said trustees from any cause, shall be filled by the County Commissioners.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 9. 1884, ch. 13. 1888, ch. 298. 1890, ch. 3, sec. 9.

9. The said trustees shall meet at the almshouse of the county within ten days after their appointment, and qualify as trustees by taking the following oath: "I, A. B., do swear that I will duly and faithfully discharge the duties and trusts committed to me as a trustee of the poor and insane of Cecil County, to the best of my skill and knowledge, so help me God;" which oath may be administered by any justice of the peace of Cecil County, or by any one of the three trustees to the others, any one of whom being sworn may administer the same to him.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 10. 1884, ch. 13. 1888, ch. 298. 1890, ch. 3, sec. 10.

10. No trustee shall be either directly or indirectly interested in any contract made by the said trustees, and no trustee shall directly or indirectly furnish supplies of any description for the use of the almshouse or insane asylum, and if any trustee should do so, upon sufficient evidence of the fact being offered to the County Commissioners, it shall be their duty forthwith to remove said trustee from office, and he shall forfeit for the use and benefit of the almshouse and insane asylum whatever supplies he may have furnished.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 11. 1884, ch. 13. 1888, ch. 298.

11. The trustee so appointed and qualified, and their successors, are invested as a body politic with full power to sue and be sued by the name of "The Trustees of the Poor and Insane of Cecil County," and by that name they and their successors shall take, hold, possess and enjoy all the property, real, personal and mixed, held by the trustees of the poor for Cecil County, or by the Commissioners of Cecil County for the use and benefit of the poor and insane of said county, and shall take, hold and possess any gift, donation or present which shall be given, devised or bequeathed by any person to them for or towards the support and maintenance of the poor and insane of said county; and they may purchase and hold and enjoy, to them and their successors, forever, any lands, tenements or hereditaments for the use and benefit of the poor and insane of Cecil County.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 12. 1884, ch. 13. 1888, ch. 298.

12. The said trustees may use one common seal, and the same, if necessary, may change and alter.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 13. 1884, ch. 13. 1888, ch. 298. 1890, ch. 3, sec. 13.

13. A majority of said trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business; the said trustees shall meet at the almshouse on
