

SWINE.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 339. 1867, ch. 87. 1870, ch. 386.

456. It shall not be lawful for any person to allow swine to run at large in the First and Second Election Districts of Cecil County.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 340. 1867, ch. 87. 1870, ch. 386.

457. Any person may impound any swine found going at large within the limits of the said districts, and the owner of such swine, on reclaiming the same, shall pay to the person so impounding at the rate of fifty cents per head, for every twenty-four hours such swine may have been impounded; and any swine so impounded shall be advertised by notice in writing, set up at two of the most public places in said districts.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 341. 1867, ch. 87. 1870, ch. 386.

458. If any swine shall remain so impounded for five days, after notice given as aforesaid, the party so impounding may sell the same at public sale, after five days' notice, given as provided in the preceding section, for the payment of costs and expenses, including the said fifty cents per day.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 8, sec. 342. 1867, ch. 87. 1870, ch. 386.

459. All disputes arising between the owner of such swine and the person impounding the same, shall be determined by a justice of the peace for said county, who may summon witnesses and decide the matter in controversy.
