

voter, so stricken off, the words "Stricken Off Because Now a Resident of the New First Election Precinct," or "of the New Second Election Precinct," as the case may be; and the Board of Supervisors of Election shall cause for each of said new precincts a duplicate registry to be prepared by having accurately copied therein the names of all the voters not stricken off, together with all the entries on such registry relating to each one of said voters whose names are not stricken off, and they shall label said copies "Duplicate Registry of the First Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District of Charles County," and "Duplicate Registry of the Second Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District of Charles County," respectively, and the said Board of Supervisors of Election shall certify in each of the said duplicate registers that said duplicate is an exact copy of all the names and all the entries uneraser upon the original, from which duplicate was copied; and the said original registry so labeled "Original Registry of the First Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District of Charles County," and its copy, shall thereafter constitute the duplicate registries of the First Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District of Charles County; and the said original registry, labeled "Original Registry of the Second Election Precinct of the Seventh Election District of Charles County," and its copy, shall thereafter constitute the duplicate registries of the said Second Election Precinct of the said Seventh Election District of Charles County.

1918, ch. 168, sec. 1.

101. A new election district in Charles County, Maryland, is hereby created and established from parts of District No. 2, now known as Hill Top District, and District No. 3, now known as Cross Road's District; said new election district to be known as Marbury District, or as District No. 10.

1918, ch. 168, sec. 2.

102. The election district so to be created and established shall be within the following outlines, that is to say:

Beginning for the same at a point on the State road leading from Indian Head to La Plata, in said Charles County, where said State road is intersected by a former, or present county road, commonly called and known as the Carrington Road, and running thence with said Carrington Road, to the county road leading from Port Tobacco to Pisgah; thence running with said last-mentioned county road to the county road leading through the village of Pisgah to Ironsides Postoffice, commonly called and known as the Johnnie Cake Road; thence with said Johnnie Cake Road to a stream known as Baxter Run; thence with the meanders of said Baxter Run, in a westerly course to a stream known as Reeder Run; thence with the meanders of said last-mentioned run to its mouth on Chicamuxen Creek; thence binding with the northerly or easterly shores of said creek and of the shores of the Potomac River, to the mouth of Mattawoman Creek; thence with the south or east shore of said Mattawoman Creek to Mattawoman Run; thence with said Mattawoman Run