

ing of any house, stable, outhouse or building of any kind or description in Allegany County, outside of the corporate limits of the incorporated towns and cities therein, without first applying in writing to the Clerk of the County Commissioners for Allegany County for permission to build same, under a penalty of five dollars ($5.00) for each and every offense. The application for such building permit shall contain the dimensions of the building for which the application is made, setting forth the character of the construction, the kind and character of materials to be used in case of a brick, stone, frame or concrete building, the height, thickness and kind of foundation and walls and kind of roofing to be used. No charge shall be made for the issuance of the said permit. The contractor, foreman and superintendent in charge of construction shall be considered "builder" within the meaning of this section.

BULLET PLAYING.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 23. 1860, art. 1, sec. 8.

56. Any person who shall be found playing at bullets in the public streets of any town in Allegany County, or any of the public roads therein, shall be liable to be presented therefor in the circuit court for the county, and upon conviction shall be fined in the discretion of the court a sum not exceeding fifty dollars.

CIRCUIT COURT.

P. L. L. (1888), art. 1, sec. 24. 1878, ch. 57. 1894, ch. 154. 1904, ch. 235.

57. There shall be four regular common law terms of the Circuit Court for Allegany County held at Cumberland, three of which shall be jury terms and one of which shall be a non-jury term. The three jury terms shall commence as follows: On the first Monday in January, the second Monday in April, and the first Monday in October, respectively, in each year; and to each of said terms juries shall be summoned and returned in the mode and manner prescribed by law; and the remaining term of said court shall commence on the first Thursday of July in each year, to which no jury shall be summoned; and said court shall transact thereat any business which may be transacted without the intervention of a jury; provided, however, when any of the above mentioned days shall fall on the first day of January, the fourth day of July, or on a day set apart by the laws of Maryland as a legal holiday, the term of court so falling thereon shall begin on the day next succeeding, and writs and processes and appearances to writs and processes issued out of said court shall be returnable accordingly; and in the trial of any case in said court on either the law or equity side thereof, the Judges or Judge presiding shall have the power and authority to employ a stenographer or shorthand reporter to take down the proceedings, including the testimony and opinion of the court, for the use of the court; and the County Commissioners shall levy such compensation for the services of said stenographer or shorthand reporter as the court or judge thereof shall approve of.
