

The sheriff shall be paid in full for his services in such cause six dollars. The jurors shall severally receive fifty cents per day, while the witnesses shall also be paid the sum of fifty cents per day.

LICENSES.

1900, ch. 339, sec. 75. 1904, ch. 395, sec. 75. 1914, ch. 680, sec. 75.

92. The Commissioners shall have authority by ordinance to require licenses or permits to be applied for and obtained by the parties or persons hereinafter mentioned, and to fix the amounts to be paid for said licenses or permits, and to prescribe the penalties to be imposed for the failure to procure the licenses or permits and to pay for the same. The moneys paid for any and all such licenses or permits required and issued under the order of the Commissioners shall belong to them for the corporate purposes of the town. The Commissioners may, by and under ordinance, require the following parties or persons, whether individuals, firms, associations or incorporated bodies, to apply for and obtain licenses or permits, to wit:

(1) All parties or persons who hawk, peddle, huckster or vend any marketable commodities, wares or merchandise of any description upon or along the streets, lanes, alleys or thoroughfares of Cambridge; provided, that no license shall be required of the producer, grower or the manufacturer of such marketable commodities; provided, further, that persons who themselves catch fish, crabs and other articles of food from the water, and persons who catch or shoot game, shall not be required to take out a license to sell same.

(2) All persons who go from house to house, or place to place, in the town to sell or dispose of any wares, merchandise, marketable articles or other commodities; provided, that no license will be required of the producer or manufacturer of such marketable articles or commodities, and no license shall be required if the party already has a traders' license.

(3) All barbers who have shops or saloons in said town for the accommodation of their patrons, and the owner or manager of any laundry business who have a fixed place for work.

(4) All persons, whether they are persons who travel about or otherwise, not being resident physicians or druggists of Cambridge, who sell or dispose of medicines, remedies, nostrums or patent medicines, or who dispense medical advice on the streets or in other places of the town; provided that nothing herein shall prevent the sale of medicines under an ordinary traders' license. When the sales are made from a wagon, carriage or other vehicle a license for it may also be required.

(5) All retail dealers of goods or articles of merchandise who are now residents of the town.

(6) All persons who keep livery stables for the hire of horses, carriages or teams, or who keep feed stables.

(7) All proprietors of hotels, and parties who keep restaurants, eating houses, and ice-cream saloons and venders of ice-cream who have no traders' license.
