

missioners shall neglect or refuse to set apart the sum of five hundred dollars in each and every year, as aforesaid, to provide a sinking fund, or shall appropriate or expend the said funds or any part thereof for any purpose whatsoever, except for the purpose of taking up and paying off the bonds hereby authorized to be issued, each and every one of said Commissioners who consents to the misappropriation of the moneys belonging to said sinking fund shall be guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be fined or imprisoned, as the court or justice trying the case may determine; provided, that no Commissioners, so found guilty, shall be fined over one hundred dollars, or be imprisoned in the county jail for more than six months, for each and every offense. Any fines imposed under this sub-section shall be paid to the treasurer of said town, to be used for the corporate purposes of said Town of Cambridge.

1894, ch. 506. 1900, ch. 339, secs. 2 and 3.

107. It shall not be lawful for any master, owner or person in charge of any boat, canoe or vessel, or for any other person, to cast or throw overboard any anchor, ballast, scrape, dredge or other heavy instrument within ten feet on either side of the pipe or water main of the Cambridge Water Company across Cambridge Creek in Dorchester County; provided, that the said Cambridge Water Company shall keep the line of said pipe marked or buoyed, by placing at least three buoys thereupon.

Any person who shall violate any of the provisions of this section or who shall wilfully, maliciously or negligently destroy or injure said water pipe, or who shall remove, displace or injure any of said buoys, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and upon conviction thereof, before any justice of the peace of Dorchester County, shall be fined not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars, in the discretion of the justice trying the same, and be committed to the county jail until such fine and costs are paid.

FIRE SALES.

1894, ch. 28. 1900, ch. 339, secs. 2 and 3.

108. It shall not be lawful for any individual, co-partnership or firm, who are non-residents of the City of Cambridge, in Dorchester County, to open a room or place of business, for the purpose of selling goods, wares and merchandise, at auction, or by any temporary expedients at variance with the regular licensed system of mercantile business in the said city, without first applying to the Clerk of the Circuit Court of the said county, for a special auction license to sell in the said city, and to pay therefor the sum of three hundred dollars, the said license to be non-transferable.

Any individual, co-partnership or firm, who are non-residents as aforesaid, who shall attempt to violate the provisions of this section, in not having procured a license as required therein, shall be subject to a penalty of one hundred dollars for each offence, one-half to the use of the State, and the other half to the corporation of the City of Cambridge.