

record on the assessment books in the office of the County Commissioners of Frederick County, for the use of said corporation, not exceeding, however, the sum of ten cents on one hundred dollars on assessable property as aforesaid in any one year.

1929, ch. 124, sec. 9.

883. The Burgess and Commissioners are hereby authorized and empowered to pass all ordinances which they may deem necessary to preserve the health of the town, prevent and remove nuisances, preserve the peace, order and quiet of the town, establish street lines, build lines and grades and to require property owners to conform thereto, to require property owners, at their own expense, to lay, keep in repair sidewalks, curbs and gutters binding on their properties, at such time and with such materials as they think proper, to make reasonable regulations for the use of streets, lanes and alleys in said town by the erection or maintenance of poles, wires and lines over and upon the same, to grant franchises to public or quasi-public corporations, to pass all ordinances, resolutions and motions necessary or proper for the good government and administration of the business of the corporation, to provide for the issuing of licenses or permits for all hauling, peddling or vendors of all goods, wares and merchandise in said town, to levy and collect a license tax from and regulate any and all trades and occupations carried on in said town and may levy and collect special taxes on all telephone, telegraph and electric light poles erected and maintained within the limits of said town, and may pass all ordinances, by-laws, resolutions and motions which may be necessary or proper for the purposes of carrying out the powers hereby conferred.

884. The Burgess shall see that all ordinances are duly and faithfully executed and he shall by virtue of his office have and exercise within the limits of corporation all powers of a Justice of the Peace except as to the recovery of small debts.

885. The Burgess and Commissioners are hereby authorized to appoint a Bailiff to enforce all ordinances, resolutions and by-laws passed by said Burgess and Commissioners, and the Bailiff when appointed, shall have all the powers and authority of a County Constable while acting within the corporate limits of Woodsboro. The Burgess and Commissioners may, from time to time, appoint such other officers and employees as they shall think proper for the efficient administration and good government of said town, provided, however, that the Burgess or one of the Commissioners may act as Treasurer, Clerk, Bailiff or in any other official capacity, and the salary of the Burgess and Commissioners and all other officers of the corporation shall be fixed by ordinances.
