

or which are provided in any other sections of this Act, such horse, or other beast of burden, wagon, carriage, cart, truck, automobile, motorcycle or other vehicle so used or employed in the violation of this Act, regardless of the ownership of the same, shall be confiscated.

Every officer of the law who shall arrest any person for the violation of the provisions of this Act, if such person is or had been employing any of means aforesaid in such violation, such officer shall seize and take in possession any or all of such articles so used or employed in such violation and shall hold the same in his possession until the case against such person shall have been finally disposed of. If such person shall be acquitted of said charge then such articles so seized shall be returned to him, but if he be convicted of said charge, then such officer shall, after giving ten days' notice, sell all of such articles so seized at public sale for cash, and the amount received for the same, after deducting the costs of such sale, including a commission of five per centum of the amount thereof as commissions to the officer making such sale, shall be paid over to the State's Attorney for Garrett County.

1922, ch. 503, sec. 32B.

315. Any person violating any of the provisions of Section 314 of this Article shall, upon conviction thereof, be fined not less than one hundred dollars ($100) nor more than five hundred dollars ($500), or be imprisoned not less than three months nor more than six months, or be both fined and imprisoned in the discretion of the court, for the first offense. For a second offense, and for each succeeding offense, the penalty shall be imprisonment for not less than six months nor more than two years. All moneys received from fines under this section shall be payable to the County Treasurer.

316. One-half of all such fines imposed under this Act shall be paid to the informer, and the balance shall be paid to the County Commissioners of Garrett County for the use of said County.

1927, ch. 88, sec. 1.

317. It shall be unlawful for any person, association or corporation to manufacture any spirituous or fermented liquors within the limits of Garrett County, Maryland.

1927, ch. 88, sec. 2.

318. Any person, association or corporation convicted of the violation of this Act shall upon conviction thereof for the first offense forfeit and pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars or more than five hundred dollars, and cost of prosecution, and failing to pay such fine and cost forthwith shall be sentenced to be confined in the Maryland House of Correction for a term not less than six months or more than twelve months, and upon conviction for each subsequent offense, forfeit and pay a fine of not less than $200.00 nor more than $600.00, and cost of prosecution,
