

the western side of said right of way to the division line between the land now or formerly owned by John H. Shaab and Thomas W. Hook; thence following said division in a westerly course to the intersection of the land now or formerly owned by John H. Shaab and Thomas W. Hook and the east side of the Baltimore and Washington Turnpike Road; thence in a southerly direction and bearing along the east side of said Baltimore and Washington Turnpike Road to the land of John A. Hartkis, directly opposite the Montgomery Road; thence northerly along the west side of said Montgomery Road to the intersection of said Montgomery Road and the Lawyers' Hill Road (now a State road); thence in an easterly direction and along the east side of said Lawyers' Hill Road to the place of beginning; and for the accomplishment of the purposes of this Act the persons and property residing and bearing on the lines of the description herein contained, as well as the persons and property residing and bearing within said lines, shall be subject to the tax or special levy herein provided for.

ELLICOTT CITY.*

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 14, sec. 49. 1867, ch. 48. 1912, ch. 665, sec. 49.
1914, ch. 836, sec. 49.

122. The inhabitants of Ellicott City, in Howard County, are hereby constituted a body corporate, by the name of the Commissioners of Ellicott City; and by that name may sue and be sued, purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property; and may have and use a common seal.

1914, ch. 836, sec. 50.

123. The limits of said City shall be as follows, viz: Commencing at the Arch Bridge, in Baltimore County, on the Frederick Turnpike Road, below the Patapsco Flour Mills, and from thence running up with Cooper's Branch, to the dividing line between the property of The Granite Manufacturing Company and John Cavanaugh; thence by a straight line to Major Peter's gate on the Patapsco Institute road; thence from said point with a straight line to a point on the Jonestown Road where the lines of Major Peter and Gerhard Marischen intersect; thence by a straight line to the northeast corner of the house formerly occupied by Leander Burgess on the Frederick Turnpike Road; thence from said point to Dr. Denny's gate on the Columbia Turnpike Road; thence by a straight line to Mrs. Frances Hazelhurst gate; and thence to the place of beginning, all of which said calls being as they existed in 1867, saving and excepting, however, all that part of Ellicott City, as contained within the above metes and bounds, which lies on the east side of the centre of the channel of the Patapsco River and which is situated in Baltimore County, which portion so excepted shall no longer be or constitute a part of Ellicott City.

*Ch. 273, 1924, authorized Ellicott City to issue $6,000 of notes for fire department and to levy taxes to pay interest on and to redeem said notes.