

with the same power and authority as any constable now has under the laws of the State; and it shall be his duty to inform on all persons violating the ordinances of the town or the laws of the State, and have process issued for their arrest, and to arrest without warrant all persons who, in his view, shall violate said laws or ordinances, and shall receive the same fees for arrest and execution of process issued by a justice as are allowed to constables under the laws of this State.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 20.

321. The treasurer shall be appointed from among the citizens of said town qualified to vote for Mayor and Common Council, and before entering upon the duties of his office he shall give bond to the Mayor and Common Council, with good and sufficient surety or sureties to be approved by the said Mayor and Common Council in such penalty as they shall prescribe, conditioned that he shall well and truly pay over to his successors in office, or to the order of said Mayor and Common Council, signed by their clerk and countersigned by the Mayor, all such moneys, and shall perform all other duties of his office according to law and the ordinances of said Mayor and Common Council; he shall keep full and correct accounts of all moneys received by him, with the source from which the same were received, and the dates of such receipts, and of the disbursements, and the person to whom and on what account the same were made; and the same person may, in the discretion of the Mayor and Common Council, be appointed clerk and treasurer.

1908, ch. 232, sec. 20A (p. 707).

322. The treasurer shall also act as assessor and shall make and return to the Mayor and Common Council on or before the 25th of June, in each and every year, a full and complete list of all lawful property, stocks and investments in said town liable to taxation and not found on the tax books of Carroll and Howard County. The Mayor and Common Council shall have the power to make any alteration in the assessment made by the treasurer which they may think proper and right. The treasurer shall receive a fee of twenty-five cents (25) for each assessment made by him of new or missed property.

323. The Mayor and Common Council shall not expend or contract to expend in any one year more money than the amount receivable from taxes and other resources for that year.

1904, ch. 256, sec. 22.

324. The Mayor and Common Council may provide by ordinances for the immediate arrest, without a warrant, of any person found violating any town ordinance, and when it shall appear that the offender is intoxicated, may confine said offender in some secure place until he be sober, and may provide further for the confinement of any person arrested if the time be unreasonable, as in the night, whereby he cannot attend the justice
