

1904, ch. 680, sec. 2. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 27.

17. The corporate limits of the town shall be as follows: Commencing near a large oak tree standing on the east side of the public road leading from Barnesville to Barnesville Station, and running in a northeasterly direction with the northern boundary of the property of John E. Knott to the southeast corner of a lot owned by Dr. J. H. Stonestreet; thence north following the eastern boundary of said Stonestreet's lot, the lot of the L. I. Hays estate and the lot of Thomas Story to the main street of Barnesville; thence with the south side of said street to a point opposite the eastern line of the schoolhouse lot; thence crossing said main street and following the eastern and northern line of said schoolhouse lot to the public road leading from Barnesville to Conners; thence with eastern side of said road to northwest corner of Fred P. Hays' woods field; thence in a straight line crossing said road, and through the lands of Hilton brothers and others to the southeast corner of a field belonging to the heirs of Major B. S. White; thence following line of said field westerly to the mountain road; thence crossing said road and through the lands of Mr. J. W. Brown in a straight line to the northeast corner of B. F. Roberson's lot; thence following northern lines of said Roberson's lot, the M. E. Church lot and Maurice O'Neil's lot to northwest corner of said O'Neil's lot; thence south to the public road leading to Dickerson; thence crossing said road and running southwesterly to northwest corner of Charles R. Darby's land; thence following north line of said Darby's to a point on said line diverging from which and running south, and then east to the Poolesville road, will include the residence, outbuildings and three acres of land in northeast corner of Charles R. Darby's field; thence crossing Poolesville road to east side and running with said east side of road to the beginning.

1904, ch. 680, sec. 3. 1912, ch. 790, sec. 28.

18. The qualified voters of said town having resided therein for six months previous to any town election shall, on the first Monday in May, 1912, or so soon thereafter as conveniently may be, and annually thereafter on the first Monday in May, elect three Commissioners of Barnesville to serve for one year, or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. The commissioners must be substantial citizens, resident within said corporate limits; must have resided therein for not less than six months next preceding their election; must be owners of real estate within said corporate limits; must continue to reside within said corporate limits during their term of office, and must serve without pay, except the president, who receives the fees hereinafter allowed.

19. The three commissioners shall, within ten days after their election, choose one of their number president, and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Commissioners shall be filled by an election held after ten days' notice given by the remaining commissioners.
