

then the Mayor and Common Council shall, without delay, proclaim their adoption.

1922, ch. 52, sec. 49.

191. The Road Directors of Prince George's County shall pay over to said Mayor and Common Council of Capitol Heights, as soon as this Act shall become effective, to be expended by said Mayor and Common Council exclusively in the repair and improvement of streets and roads within the limits of said town, all sums collected and now in the possession of said Road Directors representing the proportionate amount of taxes collected and now held by said Road Directors for account of the territory now within the limits of said Capitol Heights.

1916, ch. 493.

192. On and after the fifteenth day of June, 1916, the street road or avenue known as "Berryman Avenue" situate and located in the incorporated town of Capitol Heights, Prince George's County, according to the metes and bounds of said avenue as described and shown upon the plat of the subdivision of the said town of Capitol Heights as the same is recorded in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of said Prince George's County, and running from the State road known as Central Avenue in a southerly direction to and connecting with the road known as Marlboro Pike, shall hereafter be known as a county road, and be under the supervision of the County Commissioners of said Prince George's County, subject to the County and State laws governing such roads.

CEMETERIES.

1924, ch. 96. 1929, ch. 187.

193. It shall be unlawful for any person, firm or corporation to establish or maintain in Prince George's County a cemetery or graveyard for the burial of human bodies without the written permission, first obtained of the County Commissioners of said county. Provided, however, that the written permission of the County Commissioners for the establishment of a cemetery or graveyard shall not waive the provisions of any zoning law or any other law which applies to the establishment of a cemetery or graveyard, the requirement of this section being intended as an addition to and not in substitution of any existing law or laws. Any person, firm or corporation violating any provisions of this section shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and upon conviction thereof shall be fined not less than One Hundred Dollars ($100) nor more than Five Thousand Dollars ($5,000). The County Commissioners shall also have all the powers by way of injunction, which the law gives, to prevent the establishment or maintenance or to cause the removal when once established or maintained of a cemetery or graveyard, sought to be established or maintained, or actually established and maintained, without the written permission of the County Commissioners obtained as aforesaid.
