

and of matters relating to his office; and he shall always have and produce his said books, and the bank book and check book, which he is required to keep by the succeeding section, at said monthly meetings and also at such other meetings or before such committee or committees as said commissioners shall order or direct, and shall submit himself to be examined in relation thereto all books, documents and papers belonging to the treasurer's office shall be the property and records of Allegany County, and shall at all times be subject to the examination of the County Commissioners and of the Grand Jury or of any taxpayer of said county; and it shall be the duty of the Grand Jury at each jury term of the Circuit Court for said county to appoint from their own body a committee to examine the books and accounts of the said treasurer, and to report to the Circuit Court the results of such examination. All books, documents and papers, goods and chattels, accounts and credits, money and deposits belonging to the treasurer's office or in his custody as treasurer, shall be delivered up and transferred by him to his successor in office when his successor is duly elected and qualified; and such treasurer shall receive as full compensation for all services and duties required of and performed by him the sum of twelve hundred dollars ($1,200) per annum, payable in installments of one hundred dollars ($100) each, upon the order of said Board of County Commissioners of Allegany County, and at the end or expiration of his term of office such treasurer shall immediately transfer and deliver to his in office all books, accounts, vouchers, papers of every kind relating to the duties of or connected with his office, and pay over all moneys received for said county that may then be in his custody, charge or control belonging to said county to successor or as the County Commissioners may direct.

1910, ch. 115, sec. 41A (p. 496).

113. All money received by the treasurer, as such, during his term of office shall immediately, or as soon after its receipt as possible, be deposited in bank to the credit of such commissioners; and no money shall be drawn from the said bank except by check signed by the president, countersigned by the Clerk of the County Commissioners, and endorsed by the person to whom it is drawn, except that the road directors may draw as provided by the Act creating the same; the treasurer shall make no payments in money except by check as aforesaid, and all checks so drawn by him shall be drawn from a check book with stubs, and shall be regularly dated and numbered, and the stub of each check drawn shall correctly describe the check and the object for which it was drawn particularly; the stubs shall be signed and countersigned in the same manner as the check drawn therefrom; and the bank book showing the condition of the bank account aforesaid shall be kept regularly posted, or he shall reserve out of the money collected by him for county purposes generally and public schools a sufficient sum to pay the amount levied in each current year by said commissioners for public schools, and shall pay the same over to the Board of County School Commissioners of said county, as follows: One-