

the Washington and Baltimore Boulevard, now known as State Road No. 1, said point being the southwest corner of Riverdale where it joins the town of Hyattsville, thence with the corporate limits of Hyattsville easterly to the Baltimore and Ohio Railroad tracks, thence southeasterly to a gate on the property of Charles A. Machem near the gravel hill on the Edmonston Road, thence southerly with the said Edmonston Road to the southwest corner of said Machem's property; thence with the southern and eastern boundary lines of said Machem's property easterly to intersect the southern boundary line of the property owned by Ringgold W. Browning, Trustee, now known as Melrose; thence with the southern and eastern boundary lines of said Browning's property to the northeast corner of said property; thence easterly to the southeast corner of Thomas Pickford's property, thence northerly with the eastern boundary of said Pickford's property to the southeast corner of Henry M. Pressley's property, thence northerly with the eastern boundary of said Pressley's property to the Good-Luck Road, thence westerly with said Good-Luck Road to the Edmonston Road, thence northerly with the Edmonston Road to College Park Road, thence westerly with said College Park Road to the Baltimore and Washington Boulevard, (State Road No. 1), thence northerly with said Boulevard to the County Road running through the Maryland Agricultural College property, thence westerly with said County road to where it intersects with the Colesville Road, thence southerly with the Colesville Road to the New Cut Road, thence southwesterly with the New Cut Road to the northern boundary of the corporate limits of the town of Hyattsville, thence with the said northern boundary of the town of Hyattsville to the Baltimore and Washington Boulevard (State Road No. 1), and thence southerly with said Boulevard to the place of beginning.

1914, ch. 175, sec. 2.

421. The polling place of said Riverdale District (or District No. 19) shall be at Riverdale, at some place to be selected and designated by the Supervisors of Election for Prince George's County.

1914, ch. 175, sec. 5.

422. The Governor of the State of Maryland and the County Commissioners of Prince George's County are authorized and empowered, respectively, to make appointments of justices of the peace and constables for said Riverdale District as are now authorized by law for the other Election Districts of Prince George's County.

1914, ch. 636, sec. 1.

423. Chillum District No. 17, in Prince George's County, Maryland, is hereby divided into two precincts, to be known and designated as Precincts Nos. 1 and 2, respectively. Precinct No. 1 shall embrace that portion of said district as established and laid out by Chapter 345 of the Acts of the General Assembly of Maryland of 1906, as now comprising the corporate limits of Mount Rainier, as set forth in Chapter 514 of the