

shall not come from any one ward, and one from each of the three wards in said town, the representatives of the wards to be domiciled in the ward each shall be chosen to represent.

1912, ch. 695, sec. 197.

605. And the Mayor of the said town shall on the second Monday in March, 1912, and thereafter biennially on the second Monday in March, by and with the advice and consent of the City Council, appoint two qualified voters of the said town, not holding any office under the government of the said town, and who shall constitute the Board of Election Supervisors of said town, and who shall act as judges of election, to serve for two years and until their successors shall have qualified. And on the second Monday in March, 1912, and thereafter biennially on the second Monday in March, the Mayor and City Council shall in like manner appoint two additional persons to act with the said Supervisors of Election as judges of election, and two other persons to act as clerks of election, all of whom shall have the same qualifications as the Board of Election Supervisors.

And the said Board of Election Supervisors and judges and clerks of election shall receive for their services the sum of two dollars for each day or part thereof they shall act in their several capacities hereunder, to be paid out of the general fund of said town, and the said Board of Election Supervisors and all judges and clerks of election before entering upon their duties as such, shall each take and subscribe an oath to faithfully, honestly and without prejudice or partiality perform each and every duty required of them under the provisions of this act or any amendments thereto, and such oaths shall be filed with clerk to the City Council of said town, and the Mayor shall have the power to remove the members of said Board of Election Supervisors, and any election officials herein provided for, at any time, upon written charges after notice and a hearing, and to fill any vacancy or vacancies so created, or which may occur by removal from said town, death, resignation or failure to act, in the same manner as is provided for original appointments. And no member of such Board of Election Supervisors or any judge or clerk of election shall be eligible to an elective or appointive office in said town while so acting.

1912, ch. 695, sec. 197.

606. And the said Board of Election Supervisors shall meet on the first Wednesday in April, 1912, and thereafter biennially on the first Wednesday in April from 7:30 P. M. to 10:30 P. M. for the purpose of receiving certificates for nomination for Mayor and City Councilmen, which said nominations shall be in writing, signed by not less than thirty duly qualified voters of said town, specifying the street and ward in which they reside, and no signature shall be counted if it shall be upon more than one nomination paper of a candidate for Mayor, upon more than one nomination paper of two candidates for Councilmen at large, or upon more than one nomination paper of a candidate for Councilman from each of the three wards.

PROPERTY OF THE
STATE OF MARYLAND