Nothing in this section shall affect the provisions of Sections 9 and 10 of Article 13 of the Code of Public General Laws, applicable to any Saturday whenever the same, under the provisions of said section, shall be a legal holiday.

See sec. 337.

BIRDS, GAME AND FOXES.*

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 87. 1914 Code, sec. 126.

156. Any person killing any hawk, owl or fox within the limits of Anne Arundel County, shall be entitled to receive a bounty of twenty-five cents for each and every hawk and owl, and fifty cents for every fox so killed.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 88. 1914 Code, sec. 127.

157. To obtain said bounty it shall be necessary for the person killing said hawk, owl or fox, to produce the head or heads of the same before some justice of the peace for Anne Arundel County, and at the same time make oath that the said hawk, owl or fox was killed within the limits of said county, and within thirty days before the production of said head or heads before the said justice; and thereupon the said justice shall give a certificate of the production of the said head or heads before him, and the taking of said oath; and it shall be the duty of the said justice to destroy the said head or heads, so as to prevent a second allowance upon the same.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 89. 1914 Code, sec. 128.

158. Upon the production of the said justice's certificate before the County Commissioners they are authorized and directed to levy upon the assessable property of the county a sum sufficient for such bounties, for the use of the persons producing the same, and shall pay the same accordingly.

BRIDGES.†

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 97. 1914 Code, sec. 129.

159. The bridge over the Patapsco River, upon the Hammond's Ferry road, between Baltimore County and Anne Arundel County, where the

*All local laws relating to Birds and Game were repealed by ch. 568, 1927. See 1929 Supplement to Annotated Code, Art. 99. As the sections relating to the bounty on foxes may not have been repealed, they have been codified.

†Ch. 302, 1929, authorized the County Commissioners to issue bonds to the extent of $100,000 to replace public bridges over Weems Creek, Rock Hole Creek and Tracey's Landing Creek and to levy taxes to pay the interest on and to redeem said bonds.
