

sue and be sued, plead and implead in court of law or equity, and may have and use a corporate seal.

1914, ch. 113, sec. 2.

16. The corporate limits of the town shall be as follows: Commencing at a marble monument, at a point on the west side of the State road from Charlotte Hall to Mechanicsville, and running west and west by north with the County road between New Market and Dubois, and with said road passing in front of the home of Benj. Davis, to the north line of the Charlotte Hall School survey, a distance of 170 perches from said monument to said north line. Thence north 45 degrees east about 275 perches into the land of Carl Troyle. Thence east over the land of said Troyle to the back of his house and on a line with a large cherry tree standing on the west of the State road, north of Charlotte Hall, and continuing to the back of the home of Dr. L. J. Sothoron, a distance of about 250 perches. Thence south to the County road leading from the State road at or near New Market to "All Faith Church." Thence west with the County road to the aforesaid monument, the beginning.

1914, ch. 113, sec. 3.

17. The qualified voters of said town having resided therein for six months previous to any town election shall, on the first Monday in May, 1914, or so soon thereafter as conveniently may be, and annually thereafter on the first Monday in May, elect three Commissioners of Charlotte Hall to serve for a year, or until their successors shall be duly elected and qualified. The Commissioners must be substantial citizens, resident within said corporate limits; must have resided therein for not less than six months next preceding their election; must continue to reside within said corporate limits during their term of office, and must serve without pay, except the President, who receives the fees hereinafter allowed.

1914, ch. 113, sec. 4. 1916, ch. 651.

18. The three Commissioners shall, as soon as possible after their election, choose one of their number President, and all vacancies occurring in said Board of Commissioners shall be filled by an election held after ten days' notice given by the remaining Commissioners or Commissioner.

1914, ch. 113, sec. 5.

19. The Commissioners shall meet in some convenient place in said town on or before the first Monday in June following their election and as often thereafter as may be necessary to the discharge of their duties.

1914, ch. 113, sec. 6.

20. Said Commissioners annually, on or before the first Monday in April in each year, appoint three judges of election, who shall conduct the election according to the laws of the State, except that the hours of election shall be from 2 o'clock to 5 o'clock P. M.; except, further, that one of the Judges shall act as clerk of said election; and except further, that the