

1898, ch. 469. 1902, ch. 30, sec. 1.

181. The lines between election district No. three, known as Brinkley's election district, and election district No. eight, known as Lawson's election district, as now laid down, are changed, and the line which shall hereafter divide said districts shall be as follows: Beginning at the mouth of Colbourn's creek, and running up said creek by and with the channel to the head thereof near the residence of Aden Davis; thence in a straight line to a lane, known as the Chapel lane; thence by and with said lane in an eastwardly direction, to the Crisfield branch of the New York, Philadelphia and Norfolk Railroad; thence by and with said railroad in a northwardly direction to the point where the county road leading from the "Steamboat Wharf" to Marion station crosses said railroad at said Marion station; thence in an eastwardly direction by and with the county road leading from said railroad crossing to Tull's corner until the bridge, commonly called "The Branch Bridge," is reached; thence by and with the creek or stream crossed by said bridge, known as "East Creek," to its mouth in the "Pocomoke Sound."*

1902, ch. 23, sec. 1.

182. The lines between election district No. 3, known as Brinkley's election district, and election district No. 13, known as Westover election district, as now laid down, be changed, and that the line which shall hereafter divide said districts shall be as follows: Beginning with the county bridge, spanning the Annamessex river, near the Scarborough property; thence by and with the Annamessex river in an eastwardly direction to the old Annamessex river bridge near the residence of the late George R. Dennis; thence in a southwardly direction by and with the main county road to Carroll's Corner, near the site of the old Kingston M. E. Church; thence eastwardly by and with and following the present line between said Brinkley's and Westover districts to Bogg's Corner; thence northeastwardly by the county road leading to R. W. Adam's old steam mill site, to the present line between Westover and Dublin districts at or near said steam mill site.†

ELECTIONS.

1902, ch. 292.

183. The judges and clerks appointed by the Board of Supervisors of Election for Somerset county shall not be required to appear before the said board for the purpose of examination, nor to be sworn in, as required by Section 9 of Article 33, Code of Public General Laws, but the members of said board, before making appointments of any such judges and clerks, shall thoroughly inform themselves as to the qualifications of the parties appointed, and shall not require their attendance before said board for such examination, and shall appoint only such persons as are known

*Sec. 3, ch. 30, 1902, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.

†Sec. 3, ch. 23, 1902, repealed all laws inconsistent therewith.