

corporated city or town, or of any village, within any building or shed, upon any lot or premises whatever, above or below ground (except in a place for blasting, or in the course of transportation), any quantity of gunpowder exceeding one hundred pounds in weight in the aggregate, or any dynamite or nitro glycerine, or other explosives, in any quantity whatever.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 167. 1914 Code, sec. 245.

300. Any and all violations of the preceding section shall be indictable offenses, and upon conviction, the party offending shall be fined not less than one hundred dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, in the discretion of the court, to be recovered as other fines and penalties are recovered, and the party convicted shall stand committed until the fine and costs are paid; and if a corporation be the offender, the president, or any member of the board of directors or other officer of the corporation may be indicted and held responsible for the payment of the penalty; and all fines recovered under said section shall be paid to the School Commissioners of said county for the benefit of the free schools of the county; provided, however, that the provisions of this and the preceding section shall not be held to apply to any magazine now used for the storage of any of said explosives in said county, nor to the owners, lessees or occupiers thereof, until from and after the first day of July, eighteen hundred and eighty-nine.

HAWKERS AND PEDDLERS.

1894, ch. 443. 1914 Code, sec. 246.

301. No hawker or peddler shall buy for sale out of the State, or buy or trade, barter or sell, or offer to trade, barter or sell, within Anne Arundel County, any goods, wares, merchandise, until he shall have first taken out a license for that purpose; and any person carrying with him goods for sale and delivery at the time of sale, shall be considered a peddler within the provisions of this section, and shall not be entitled to make such sales and deliveries under the license of any manufacturer, from such stock of goods as he shall have with him for such sale and delivery, without a permit from said manufacturer; and any manufacturer of goods who shall give such permit where he has made a bona fide sale to such peddler under his privileges as a manufacturer, shall be liable to all the penalties of the Public General Laws of this State, as other persons are so liable for selling without license; nothing in this section shall apply to hawkers and peddlers of oysters and fish in their unpreserved and natural condition, or to fruits and vegetables perishable in their nature, which are sold in their natural condition in this State.

1894, ch. 443. 1914 Code, sec. 247.

302. For any such license there shall be paid to the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County, the following rates, viz: For every