ELECTION DISTRICTS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 21, sec. 98. 1860, Art. 20, sec. 82.

250. Talbot county is divided into five election districts, according to their present names, bounds and limits, and elections shall be held in each district at the place hereinbefore established by law for that purpose.

1892, ch. 572.

251. The lines between election district No. 3, known as Trappe district and election district No. 1, known as Easton district, as now laid down, be changed, and the line which shall hereafter divide said districts shall be as follows: Beginning at the mouth of Trippe's Creek and running up Trippe's Creek and the north branch thereof, thence with said north branch of Trippe's Creek to a point at or near the residence of Mrs. James P. Hambleton, known as Waterloo, from thence, nearly east with the road leading from said Mrs. Hambleton's residence to a point on the public road leading from Hambleton to Dover Bridge, at or near Iveytown colored church, thence with said road until it intersects the present dividing line between Easton and Trappe districts, then following the line as now laid to the Choptank River.

ELECTIONS.

1914, ch. 630.

252. In addition to the compensation now allowed by law to all Judges, whether acting as or sitting as officers of registration, and the Clerks of Election of Talbot County, said Judges or Clerks of Election of Talbot County shall be paid five cents per mile for going to and returning from the office of the Supervisors of Election of said County at each session at which said Judges or Clerks are required to attend.

1920, ch. 147.

253. All judges, whether acting as or sitting as officers of registration, and all clerks of election in Talbot County, shall be allowed the sum of one ($1.00) dollar per day for their services as such judge or clerk in addition to the compensation now allowed to said judges and clerks by the Election Laws of Maryland. The aforesaid compensation shall be paid by the County Commissioners of Talbot County as other election expenses are required to be paid.
