

with the other of said justice that he will be in attendance at his office as required by law during such absence, nor shall either of said justice be absent during such absence, nor shall either of said justice be absent at any time without the written authority of the State's Attorney of Anne Arundel County, or of the Mayor of the City of Annapolis.

1908, ch. 524, sec. 171E. 1914 Code, sec. 257.

346. It shall be the duty of the Governor when making the appointments of justices of the peace for the Second Election District of Anne Arundel County, to designate one of the justices so appointed as a police justice of the Second District, who shall be a resident of the First Precinct of said district, and who, before he acts as such, shall give bond to the State of Maryland in the penalty of one thousand dollars, with a surety or sureties to be approved by the County Commissioners, conditional that he will well and faithfully execute the duties and obligations of justice of the peace, and that he will account for and pay over to the County Commissioners all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by him, and which he shall receive for or on account of criminal offenses tried before him under the provisions of the Public General Laws and the Public Local Laws, which bond shall be recorded in the clerk's office of the Circuit Court, and shall be liable at the suit of the State for the use of the County Commissioners in case of default in any of its conditions.

1908, ch. 524, sec. 171F. 1914 Code, sec. 258.

347. The Police Justice of the Second District shall have an office in Germantown, in said district, and he shall attend at his office every day of the week except Sundays, at least from the hour of ten o'clock A. M., until twelve o'clock M., and from five o'clock P. M., until seven o'clock P. M., and such other times as the business of his office may require.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 172. 1892, ch. 334. 1914 Code, sec. 259.

348. The justices of the peace of the Sixth District of Anne Arundel County shall have civil jurisdiction co-extensive with said county and criminal jurisdiction of offenses committed in any of the districts of said county cognizable by justices of the peace under the law, where complaint is made before them, but no warrant of arrest shall be issued by said justices except upon the oath or affirmation of the person making complaint that an offence has been committed and upon being satisfied upon examination of such person making complaint under oath of the probable truth of such charge.

1908, ch. 524, sec. 172C. 1914 Code, sec. 262.

349. The said Police Justice of the Second District shall have the same jurisdiction in civil actions as other justices of the peace of the said county, and shall have exclusive jurisdiction of a justice of the peace in the hearing of all charges and trial of all cases of criminal offenses, or for the recovery of any fine, penalty or forfeiture under the laws of this State,
