

in the hands of the treasurer of the board to pay the salaries of the public school teachers, are hereby authorized and empowered to borrow money upon their promissory note, signed by the president and secretary of the board and endorsed by the treasurer thereof; provided, that the aggregate sum of money so borrowed shall never exceed ten thousand dollars, and provided further, that the aggregate sum of money so borrowed does not create an indebtedness over and above the county levy for public school purposes then actually in the hands of the collector or collectors for collection, and not paid over to the said Board of County School Commissioners.

502. Each of said three Boards of County School Commissioners shall contribute annually such sum or sums of money as shall be necessary or proper for the maintenance of such high school,* the amount to be paid by such board to be in proportion to the number of pupils attending from each of said counties, respectively, and enrolled in said high school on the 15th day of January, in each year, as based on the total enrollment of said school on the said fifteenth day of January in each year, and the principal or head master of said school shall enter in the roll book of the county in which each pupil enrolled resides.

503. The said high school shall be under the joint control and management of said three boards of school commissioners, and all expenditures as to the maintenance of said school, after the same is constructed and equipped, shall be made through and by the board of school commissioners of that county in which said high school is located, and each of the other two boards shall contribute and pay the said board its proportionate share for the maintenance of said school, as provided in Section 502 of this Article, and the board having charge of the said expenditures shall render annually to the other two boards an itemized and detailed statement of all receipts and expenditures relating to the maintenance of said high school, and the appropriation from the State of Maryland or any other source for the maintenance of said school shall also be paid to the board of school commissioners of the county in which said high school is located, and shall be disbursed and accounted for as aforesaid.

504. Either an agricultural, manual training or commercial course may be provided for, established and maintained in connection with said high school, according to the best judgment of said boards of school commissioners, and subject to the provisions of the general school law, as contained in the Acts of the Assembly of 1910, Chapter 386, or any reenactments or amendments thereto.

*The other sections provided for the erection of a high school in the town of Queen Anne under joint supervision and at joint expense of Caroline, Talbot and Queen Anne's Counties.
