

1927, ch. 250.

368. The County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County are hereby authorized and empowered to pay a salary of Forty Dollars ($40) a month to each of the justices of the peace in the following districts: In the Third Precinct of the Fifth Election District at Glenburnie, and in the Thrid Precinct of the Fifth District at Ferndale, and in the Second Precinct of the Fifth District at Linthicum Heights, and in the First Precinct of the Third Election District of Anne Arundel County; said salaries to be paid in lieu of all fees in criminal cases and said justices are to return to the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, all fines, penalties, forfeitures and costs imposed by them and which they shall receive for or on account of criminal offenses tried before them under the provisions of the Code of Public General Laws and Public Local Laws.*

1929, ch. 156, sec. 1.

369. On the first Tuesday in May, 1929, and on the first Tuesday in May biennially thereafter the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall appoint a constable for the Sixth Election District of Anne Arundel County, to serve for a term of two years or until his successor is appointed and qualified. Said constable shall give bond to the County Commissioners of said county in the sum of five hundred dollars ($500.00) for the faithful performance of his duty.

1929, ch. 156, sec. 2.

370. The County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County shall pay to the said constable, so appointed, for his service, forty dollars per month.

1929, ch. 156, sec. 3.

371. The fee for civil cases shall be paid to said constable, the same as are now prescribed by law for service rendered in such cases for the several constables of said county.†

POLICE JUSTICE.

1917 (Sp. Session), ch. 38, sec. 1.

372. It shall be the duty of the Governor, after the passage of this Act, to appoint an additional justice of the peace for the Fourth Election District of Anne Arundel County, who shall be a resident of said district, to be designated as police justice of said district, who shall hold office until the first day of May, nineteen hundred and eighteen; and the Governor shall at the same time that he appoints other justices of the peace of the State of Maryland, in the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, and every two years thereafter, appoint a police justice for said Fourth Election District of Anne Arundel County, to serve for a term of two years, from said
