

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 155. 1884, ch. 58. 1914, ch. 257, sec. 155.
1920 (Special Session), ch. 4, sec. 155.

230. The said City is divided into five wards, the boundaries and limits of which are defined to be as follows:

For Ward Number One. Commencing in the center of the Public Square and running with the middle of Washington Street westwardly, two hundred and seventy-six feet, thence southwardly, through the middle of an alley, two hundred and seventy-six feet, thence westwardly, along the middle of an alley to the middle of Prospect Street; thence southwardly thirty-seven feet, thence westwardly through the middle of an alley, to the middle of Walnut Street; thence along the middle of Walnut Street, north-eastwardly, to the middle of West Washington Street; thence along the middle of West Washington Street and West Washington Street Extended to the Western boundary of the city, thence northwardly with the western boundary of the city, to the middle of Franklin Street Extended; thence eastwardly, with the middle of Franklin Street to the middle of Winter Street, thence southwardly, along the middle of Winter Street to the middle of an alley opposite the Winter Street Schoolhouse, and lying between Franklin and Washington Streets; thence along the middle of said alley north of Washington Street, eastwardly to the alley running from Washington Street to Franklin Street, along the east side of the Baldwin House; thence northwardly, along the middle of the last mentioned alley, to the middle of Franklin Street; thence along the middle of Franklin Street to the middle of North Potomac Street; thence along the middle of North Potomac Street, southwardly, to the place of beginning.

For Ward Number Two: Beginning in the center of the Public Square and running thence westwardly with the southern lines of Ward Number One, to the Western Boundary of the city, thence southwardly and eastwardly with the boundary line of the city, to the middle of the turnpike road leading to Sharpsburg; thence along the middle of said turnpike, and the middle of South Potomac Street to the place of beginning.

For Ward Number Three: Beginning in the center of the Public Square and running southwardly, through the middle of South Potomac Street and through the middle of the Sharpsburg Turnpike to the southern boundary of the City; thence with the boundaries of the city, eastwardly and northwardly, to intersect a straight line drawn along the middle of Valentine Street and Valentine Street Extended; thence westwardly along said line to the middle of Jackson Lane or North Cannon Avenue; thence Southwardly, along the middle of said Avenue, to the middle of East Franklin Street; thence southwardly two hundred and seventy-six feet to an alley; thence along the middle of said alley to an alley running from East Washington Street to East Franklin Street, in the rear of the Market House property; thence northwardly along the alley to the middle of East Franklin Street; thence westward along the middle of East Franklin Street, to the middle of North Potomac Street; thence along the middle of North Potomac Street, southwardly to the place of beginning.