

LIQUOR AND INTOXICATING DRINKS.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 180. 1914 Code, sec. 283.

379. If any person, house, company, corporation or association, or body corporate, shall sell, directly or indirectly, at any place, or give away at his, her, their or its place of business, any spirituous or fermented liquors or alcoholic bitters, or intoxicating drinks of any kind, within the limits of Anne Arundel County, except in the City of Annapolis, and in the First Precinct of the Fifth Election District of said county, he, she or they shall, on conviction thereof, forfeit and pay on the first conviction a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than three hundred dollars, and cost of prosecution; or instead of such fine, be imprisoned in the county jail for thirty days, or both, in the discretion of the court; and on the second and every subsequent conviction shall pay a fine of not less than one hundred dollars nor more than five hundred dollars, and cost of prosecution; and in addition to such fine, shall be imprisoned in the county jail for not less than thirty nor more than ninety days, in the discretion of the court; and on failure to pay the fine, as herein described, he, she or they shall be committed to the county jail of Anne Arundel County until such fine and the costs are paid. One-half of said fine shall go to the informer, and the residue to the Board of County School Commissioners of said county, for the benefit of the public schools therein; and in case of any violation of this section by any company, corporation or association, each or any member of such company, corporation or association shall be liable, and shall suffer imprisonment as herein prescribed for persons violating the same.

1890, ch. 457. 1914 Code, sec. 284.

380. Hereafter it shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Anne Arundel County to issue a license to any person or body politic to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer within the village of "Glenburnie," in the Fifth Election District of Anne Arundel County, or at any place in the said district within two miles from "Glenburnie Station," on the Annapolis and Baltimore Shore Line Railroad in said village.

1892, ch. 613. 1914 Code, sec. 285.

381. It shall not be lawful for the Clerk of the Circuit Court for Anne Arundel County to issue license to any person or persons, or body corporate to sell spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer nearer than one mile (1 mile) in all directions from Holly Run Methodist Protestant Church in the Fifth Election District of Anne Arundel County, Maryland. Provided that nothing in this Act shall be construed to interfere with the sale of spirituous or fermented liquors or lager beer in Baltimore County.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 181. 1914 Code, sec. 286.

382. No person, company, corporation or association, shall deposit or have in his, her, their or its possession, any spirituous or fermented liquors,
