

such contract or lighting, the Mayor and Council is hereby authorized and required to levy and appropriate of the thirty cents tax authorized by Section 362 of this article, and not otherwise appropriated by said section, as much thereof as may be necessary for the purpose of raising the amount to be paid under any such contract or lighting, and the said sum of money so collected from said tax as aforesaid, appropriated and levied with the sum received from pro rata apportionment to the same, as provided by Section 321, shall constitute a separate fund to be kept, applied and drawn in the same manner and form as the amounts collected from the said levy of ten cents.

See Secs. 393 and 405, et seq. Mealy v. Hagerstown, 92 Md. 741.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 22, sec. 192. 1884, ch. 58. 1892, ch. 126. 1898, ch. 192, sec. 192. 1900, ch. 391. 1904, ch. 367. 1914, ch. 554. 1918, ch. 2, sec. 192. 1920, ch. 10. 1924, ch. 260, sec. 192. 1927, ch. 355.

358. The Board of Street Commissioners shall appoint as many regular policemen as they may deem necessary for the good government of the city, and the said Street Commissioners shall designate one of their number as "Chief" or "Captain" and another as "Lieutenant". The said policemen shall serve under such rules and regulations, and for such compensation, as the Board of Street Commissioners shall direct; such compensation, however, not to exceed the sum of Two Hundred Dollars per month for said "Chief" or "Captain" and "Lieutenant," and for other members of the police force not to exceed the sum of One Hundred and Fifty Dollars per month, and said police or policemen shall be subject to dismissal and discharge by said Board of Street Commissioners; they shall have power to appoint special policemen, if in their judgment the circumstances of the city shall require it; provided, however, that the term of appointment of such special policemen shall not exceed a period of thirty days. The Fire Marshal and Assistant Fire Marshals provided for by ordinance of the Mayor and Council of Hagerstown, for the more effective discharge of their duties and the protection of property, shall, during the time of fire, have all the powers of a policeman in the city of Hagerstown, and said Fire Marshal and Assistant Fire Marshals shall take the oath prescribed for policemen of said city and shall serve without pay.

Street Commissioners v. Williams, 96 Md. 232.

1914, ch. 96.

359. The Board of Street Commissioners are hereby empowered and authorized, whenever in their discretion, the efficiency of the Police Force of Hagerstown may require it, to retire any regular Policeman, Chief, Captain or Lieutenant appointed by them, and to pay him for life a sum of money on monthly installments, equal to one-half of the compensation allowed him at the date of his retirement; provided, however, that such regular Policeman, Chief, Captain or Lieutenant shall have served faithfully as a policeman of Hagerstown for not less than fifteen years or he shall have been permanently disabled in the discharge of his duty as a policeman of Hagerstown, and the said Board of Street Commissioners
