

T. H. Irving, trustee, by deed dated October 20, 1871, and recorded among the Land Records of said Wicomico County, Liber T. F. J. R. No. 3, folio 24, and to convey the said property to the purchaser or purchasers thereof; provided, that before the said County Commissioners shall sell any part or the whole of said property at private sale, that the said Commissioners shall offer the said property for sale at public auction, after having given notice for at least three successive weeks in some newspapers printed in said Wicomico County, of the time, place, manner and terms of sale, and that the said property shall not be sold at private sale for a less sum than the highest bid offered therefor at public auction.

2. The proceeds arising from the sale of any part or portion, or the whole of said property shall be paid to the County Commissioners of Wicomico County, and by them be applied to such indebtedness of Wicomico County as they may deem best or to the general expenses of said county.

BIRDS AND GAME.

(All local laws relating to birds and game were repealed by ch. 568, 1927. See 1929 Supplement to Annotated Code, Art. 99.)

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 23, sec. 9. 1882, ch. 269.

3. Riding or driving over any iron bridge in Wicomico county, faster than a walk, shall be a misdemeanor, punishable upon conviction before a justice of the peace of said county, by a fine of five dollars and costs, and the offender shall be committed by the justice until such fine and costs are paid.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 23, sec. 10. 1882, ch. 269.

4. To stop or stand upon the draw of any draw or turning bridge in said county, while the same is being opened or closed, shall be a misdemeanor, punishable upon conviction before a justice of the peace of said county by a fine of one dollar and costs, and the offender shall be committed until such fine and costs are paid.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 23, sec. 11. 1882, ch. 269.

5. The bailiff of the town of Salisbury shall arrest every person violating either of the preceding sections, within the limits of said town; and upon conviction as therein provided shall receive the fines imposed, and pay one-half thereof to the Commissioners of Salisbury, and retain the other half to his own use; and for making arrests under said section the bailiff shall have the same fees as constables in criminal cases.

*Ch. 184, 1890, authorized the Commissioners to levy $500 for bridge over Shile's Creek in Tyaskin district.
