

1898, ch. 415.

142. A new election district to be formed and laid out of the eleventh election district of Allegany County, to be known and designated as the twenty-sixth election district of Allegany County, whose metes and bounds shall be as follows: Beginning at the intersection of Bowery Street and the Legislative Road, in the town of Frostburg, and running thence with the centre of Bowery Street to the National Turnpike, and then with the centre of said National Turnpike westerly to its intersection with the Garrett County line, and then with said Garrett County line southerly to the line of district number nineteen, and with the lines of district number nineteen, reversed to the Legislative Road aforesaid, and then with said Legislative Road to the point of beginning.

143. The Board of Election Supervisors in and for Allegany County shall lay out and divide District No. 18 in Allegany County into two precincts, to be called Precinct 1 and Precinct 2, said district to be so divided that there shall not be less than one hundred and fifty voters at the time of said division in any one of said precincts, and the manner and course of their proceeding in said division shall be as follows: On or before the 1st day of July, 1900, said supervisors of elections shall divide said district as nearly as may be by metes and bounds, and shall insert a description of each of said precincts in two papers of general circulation in said Allegany County once a week for three successive weeks before the 1st day of August, 1900, and on or before the 1st day of August, 1900, shall file a copy of said notice and description, and the printers' certificate thereto in the Clerk's office for the Circuit Court for Allegany County, to be therein recorded among the land records of said county, and the voters residing in said precinct shall be entitled to the same rights and privileges as voters in other precincts in said county; and the said Board of Election Supervisors shall appoint such officers of registration and election required in each precinct, as are necessary under the laws of the State of Maryland.

1900, ch. 652.

144. The metes and bounds, courses and distances of Election District No. 21, are changed as follows, viz: Beginning at Zion Church, on the Bedford Road, and running thence down Peavine Run to Mrs. Hardman's; then with the County Road to Frantz Bridge; then across by the Southern Church to the bridge on the turnpike at Moses Wilson's; thence west by the National Pike to the road at Hamilton's blacksmith shop; thence with a straight line to the Southern Church, on the top of the mountain, near Evans Rice's; thence by a straight line to the Twiggtown School House; thence with the top of Martin's Mountain to the Pennsylvania line; thence with Pennsylvania line west to the centre of Bedford Road; thence with the centre of Bedford Road to the place of beginning.
