

as aforesaid, not upon the former jury; and the same proceedings shall be had in all respects as hereinbefore provided; and in case of a second or other disagreement of the jury the same proceedings shall be had until a verdict of inquisition shall be made and returned as aforesaid. And each juror shall receive one dollar per day or part of day, actually employed, irrespective of the number of separate parcels of land valued by him, or of the number of cases in which he is sworn.

1908, ch. 733. 1900 Code, sec. 21.

22. All ordinances and by-laws passed by the Council shall within ten days be sent to the Mayor for his approval, and he shall return the same to the next stated or special meeting of the Council, with his approval or disapproval, and any ordinance or by-law returned by the Mayor without his approval shall not become a law unless subsequently passed at a regular meeting by a four-fifths vote of the whole Council, and within sixty days from the time of the return of the ordinance.

1908, ch. 733. 1920 Code, sec. 22.

23. All ordinances and by-laws heretofore passed by the Commissioners of Berlin, or by the Mayor and Council of Berlin and now in force not in conflict with the provisions of this Act, shall be valid and remain in force until the same are repealed, amended or modified by the Mayor and Council, and all contracts entered into by said Commissioners or by the said Mayor and Council for the good of said town, are hereby ratified and confirmed and declared to be binding upon said town and to be enforced by the Mayor and Council.

1908, ch. 733. 1920 Code, sec. 23.

24. Power is hereby given to the Mayor and Council of Berlin and to their successors in office to restrict and prevent any person, persons or body corporate from building, erecting, constructing or maintaining any dwelling, shop, factory, store or other building within the limits designated by a certain ordinance passed by the Town Commissioners of Berlin on the seventh day of August, 1895, unless the same be of brick, stone, iron or other non-combustible material, and the aforesaid ordinance passed by the Town Commissioners of Berlin on August 7, 1895, be and the same is hereby declared valid, and of full force and effect until the same is or except as the same may have been repealed, amended, or modified by the Mayor and Council.

1908, ch. 733. 1920 Code, sec. 24.

25. The Mayor and Council shall cause each male inhabitant of Berlin between the ages of twenty-one and fifty-five years of age and every other male inhabitant above fifty-five years of age and possessing taxable property assessed at five hundred dollars or upwards, who shall have resided within the limits of Berlin for one month next preceding the date when his services may be demanded to labor at least one day each year,