

fee hereinafter provided and to cover the cost of publication of said notice as provided in Section 8 hereof. Temporary licenses shall entitle the holders thereof to operate thereunder immediately for a period not exceeding sixty days from the date of such temporary license, and provided that all such temporary licenses shall expire immediately upon the action of the Board, approving or refusing to approve the original application for a license.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 10.

10. Temporary Licenses in Counties Having No Board of License Commissioners. Any applicant for a license who has filed an application as above provided for a license with the Clerk of the Circuit Court for the County in those Counties having no Board of License Commissioners, and who has made the necessary deposit to cover the cost of publication as above provided, may apply for and obtain without any notice or advertisement, a temporary license of the same class as applied for which shall entitle the holder thereof to operate thereunder immediately, for a period not exceeding sixty days from the date of issue of such temporary license; and provided, that all such temporary licenses shall expire immediately upon the issue of the license by the clerk as provided in Section 7 or upon the action of the License Bureau refusing to approve the original application for a license.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 11.

11. Temporary Licenses—Fees and Conditions of Such Licenses. All temporary licenses above provided shall be subject to revocation at any time as hereinafter provided with respect to revocation of licenses. The fees for such temporary licenses shall be one-sixth of the annual license fee for such licenses as hereinbefore provided, and upon final approval of the original application by the Board or Bureau, as the case may be, after notice as hereinabove provided, the applicant shall be required to pay a fee for such license to expire on April 30th, 1934, which shall be computed as hereinafter provided, and subject to credit for any unearned portion of the fee paid for the temporary license. In the case of the disapproval of the original application by the Board, or in the case of the revocation of any temporary license, the licensee shall not be entitled to any refund.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 12.

12. Licenses—Forms—Date of Issue and Expiration. Every license issued under the provisions of this Article shall be upon forms prescribed by the Comptroller, board of license commissioners, or the Clerks of the Courts, as the case may be, shall be dated as of the date of issue and shall expire on April 30th next after its issuance, except temporary licenses and special licenses, which shall expire as above provided.

1933 (Special Sess.), ch. 2, sec. 13.

13. Display of Licenses. Every person receiving a license under the provisions of this Article shall frame his license under glass and place the
