

of each year, the amount not previously certified to by him that is due the said Cheltenham School for Boys from the several counties and the City of Baltimore, having colored male minors chargeable thereto, and the said Comptroller shall pass the same to the credit of the Cheltenham School for Boys. The State Comptroller shall thereupon notify the County Treasurer of each county, and the Comptroller of the City of Baltimore, respectively, so owing, of the amount thereof and charge the same to said county or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be. And the Board of County Commissioners of each county, and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore are hereby authorized and required to levy annually upon the assessable property of each of said counties and said city respectively, an amount equal to two hundred dollars ($200.00) for each colored male minor committed to the care and training of the Cheltenham School for Boys from said counties and said city, as the case may be; and the Board of County Commissioners of each county, and the Mayor and City Council of Baltimore, are hereby authorized and directed to levy annually upon the assessable property of each of said counties and said city, respectively, an amount equal to twenty-five dollars ($25.00), for each colored male minor committed from said counties and said City, to the care and training of the Cheltenham School for Boys, but who has been paroled and is under its supervision and control. The total amount of annual tax levied by the said counties and said city shall not be less than a sum sufficient to provide for the number of colored male minors committed from said counties or said City, based upon the previous year's certification by the Board of Managers of the Cheltenham School for Boys to the said counties and said city; and the Board of County Commissioners of said counties and Mayor and City Council of Baltimore shall pay unto the State Treasurer at the end of each quarter of the calendar year an amount equal to the sum of fifty dollars ($50.00) for each colored male minor committed to the care and training of the Cheltenham School for Boys, and the sum of six dollars and twenty-five cents ($6.25), for each male minor paroled and under the supervision and control of the Cheltenham School for Boys, multiplied by the number of colored male minors certified to the Comptroller of the State by the Board of Managers of the Cheltenham School for Boys, on the first days of January, April, July and October, respectively, in each year. Any balance from said levy at the end of the year shall revert to the Treasury of said counties or city, and any deficiency, if any, shall be included in the next succeeding levy and forthwith paid into the State Treasury.

706. Should any county or the City of Baltimore fail to levy a tax in said county or city for said amount when due said State, and shall fail at the time of levying other county or city taxes thereafter, to levy the tax aforesaid, to an amount sufficient to pay the indebtedness subsequently incurred, it shall be the duty of the Attorney General to bring in the name of the State an action against any said county, in the Circuit Court for said county, or against the City of Baltimore, in the Superior Court of Baltimore City, so failing aforesaid, to enforce the levying of said tax, for the recovery of the amount due the State, as aforesaid. Upon failure of any county or the City of Baltimore to levy such tax as aforesaid, to an amount sufficient to pay the amount then due the State, it shall be the duty of the State Comptroller to charge such delinquent county or said
