

An. Code, 1924, sec. 615. 1918, ch. 300, sec. 4.

710. That the manner of commitments to and receiving inmates into said institution shall be as now provided by the Laws of this State under Sections 716, 717 and 718 of this Article, as fully and absolutely as if the same were herein repeated, recited and specifically set out and re-enacted; provided, however, that all commitments heretofore made shall in no manner be affected by the transfer to and taking over by the State of Maryland of said institution, but the same shall be and remain in full force and effect and continue after said transfer shall have been made.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 616. 1918, ch. 300, sec. 5.

711. That all Legacies now held and existing, and all Legacies that may hereafter be given by persons dying after June 1, 1918 and the acquisition by the State of Maryland as aforesaid of the property and rights of said now existing corporation, said Maryland School for Boys, and all appropriations for, and gifts, grants, and devises heretofore and hereafter to be made, given, granted, devised or bequeathed to the said Maryland School for Boys, either under and by said name, or under its former name of the House of Refuge, shall survive and inure to the benefit of and vest in the Board of Managers of the Maryland Training School for Boys as appointed under the provisions of this sub-title.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 617. 1918, ch. 300, sec. 6. 1920, ch. 360.

712. For each white male minor committed to the care and training of the Maryland Training School for Boys from the City of Baltimore or any one of the counties in the State, the said city or county, as the case may be, shall, as herein specified, pay into the State Treasury, the sum of one hundred and eighty ($180.00), per annum, for the care and training of such white male minor, and the remaining amount required for the care and training of such white male minor shall be paid from the Treasury of the State, and the said city or county, as the case may be, shall, as herein specified, pay into the State Treasury the sum of twenty-five dollars ($25.00), per annum, for each white male minor, paroled and under the control of the Maryland Training School for Boys, for supervising said white male minors. The expense for care, training and supervision of all male minors in the Maryland Training School for Boys and on parole and under its control shall be a charge upon each county and City of Baltimore, committing such white male minor or minors to the Maryland Training School for Boys, as hereinafter provided. It shall be the duty of the Board of Managers of the Maryland Training School for Boys to furnish to the County Treasurer and to the Comptroller of the City of Baltimore, having white male minors committed to the Maryland Training School for Boys a quarterly statement giving the number of white male minors and the name of each white male minor from and charged to such county or the City of Baltimore, as the case may be, and the cost of maintenance and supervision due from said county and the City of Baltimore for such white male minor or minors. The Board of Managers of the Maryland Training School for Boys shall certify to the State Comptroller on the first days of January, April, July and October, of each year, the amount not previously certified to by him that is due the said Maryland Training School for Boys from the several counties and the City of Baltimore, having white male minors chargeable thereto, and the said Comptroller shall pass the same to the
