1931, ch. 415. 1939, ch. 593.

170. The Boards of Supervisors of Elections for the several counties shall have power to employ an attorney, who shall also be the attorney for the judges of election, whether acting as such or as registration officers, to receive such compensation as shall be allowed by the county commissioners upon the approval of the circuit court, except that the attorney to the Board of Supervisors of Elections of Wicomico County shall receive an annual salary of three hundred dollars ($300) payable on the order of the County Commissioners of Wicomico County in equal quarterly installments, provided, however, that in the event of special elections or special services rendered, the Board of County Commissioners shall allow such additional compensation as may by said County Commissioners be deemed commensurate with such special services rendered.

Services of counsel held to be such as county commissioners were required to pay for under this section. Hence, mandamus will issue. Anne Arundel County v. Melvin, 107 Md. 534.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 135. 1912, sec. 125. 1904, sec. 123. 1896, ch. 202, sec. 114B.
1914, ch. 17.

171. The Board of Supervisors of Election of Anne Arundel County shall annually on the first day of June in each year appoint some practicing member of the bar of Anne Arundel County to act as general counsel for said board, and for the officers of registration and Judges of Election, appointed by them, in all matters and proceedings pertaining to their duties and to appear for and defend said Board of Supervisors, officers of registration and judges of election at the hearing of all petitions and suits which may be filed or brought for or against them under the provisions of Article 33 of the Code of Public General Laws of Maryland, title "Elections," or involving their rights and duties thereunder. For his services as such general counsel he shall receive an annual salary of four hundred dollars, to be paid in equal quarterly installments by the County Commissioners of Anne Arundel County, and he shall not receive any other compensation, emolument, pay, fee, appearance fee or recompense of any kind whatsoever.
