

marked shall, for the purpose of this Article, be held to be had in possession with intent to use or sell for human and/or animal food, or in the preparation of such food.

1935, ch. 312, sec. 207D.

215. Any person, firm, association or corporation making sale, consignment, shipment, or delivery of inedible eggs in the shell or in broken-out mass, shall file with the State Board of Health, not later than the date of the transaction, a duplicate or certified copy of the invoice, the bill of lading, or other paper which shall show the name of the consignor, consignee, carrier, if any, and the date and amount of the transaction. In case of shipment from another State, the District of Columbia, or a foreign country, the first receiver of such shipment shall file with the State Board of Health a notice of receipt of shipment and shall not use, sell, offer for sale, or otherwise dispose of same before the same shall have been inspected by the State Board of Health.

1935, ch. 312, sec. 207E.

216. The final determination as to meeting the provisions of Sections 212-218 for inedible eggs in the shell shall be made by candling and for inedible broken-out eggs by the methods approved or indicated by United States Department of Agriculture Bulletin 846.

1935, ch. 312, sec. 207F.

217. The State Board of Health is hereby authorized, empowered and directed to administer and enforce the provisions of Sections 212-218 and to define, promulgate and enforce such rules and regulations as may be deemed necessary therefor.

In carrying out the provisions of Sections 212-218, the State Board of Health, or its duly authorized agent, shall be authorized and empowered to enter, during the usual hours of business, any warehouse, storehouse, store, market, or any other building or place or carrier, conveyance or vehicle at, in, on or from which any eggs in the shell, or in broken-out mass, are used, stored, sold, offered or exposed for sale, or where eggs are canned frozen or broken out, or where used for human and/or animal food, or in the preparation of same, and to examine any and all such eggs and any invoice, bill of lading, or other papers relating thereto for the purpose of determining whether the provisions of Sections 212-218 shall have been violated.

For the purpose of enabling said Board to administer and enforce the provisions of Sections 212-218, the sum of eighteen hundred ($1,800.00) dollars shall be appropriated annually to said Board.

1935, ch. 312, sec. 207G.

218. Any person, firm, association or corporation who violates any of the provisions of Sections 212-218 or any rule or regulation made thereunder for its enforcement, or who fails or refuses to report or who reports falsely with intent to deceive in answer to any requirements of Sections 212-218 or who shall interfere with the State Board of Health, or its agents, in the proper enforcement of Sections 212-218, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor and, upon conviction thereof, shall be fined not less than
