

An. Code, 1924, sec. 170. 1922, ch. 307, sec. 169.

170. The operator of every such mine shall adopt and install a system whereby when required by and under regulation of the Bureau, the employees shall check in and out of such mine.

CHAPTER XXV—General Sanitation and Health Provisions.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 171. 1922, ch. 307, sec. 170.

171. Upon submission of an application signed by sixty per cent. of the employees in and about any coal mine within this State, approved by the Bureau, the operator of such mine shall provide and maintain at a convenient point near the principal entrance of such mine an adequate and sanitary washroom for the use of the employees of such mine; or upon submission of an application signed by twenty-five per cent. of such employees, approved as aforesaid, such operator shall provide and maintain at a location convenient for its use by such employees, near to an entrance of such mine, a sanitary washroom adequate for the needs of such signatory employees; all washrooms to be heated, provided with hot and cold water and suitable means for bathing, and with lockers sufficient in number and adequate in size for the employees, at their own risk, under locks provided by themselves to store their personal clothing and belongings. The cost of operation of such washroom to be borne as may be agreed upon by such operator and such employees.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 172. 1922, ch. 307, sec. 171.

172. No stable shall be provided in any mine unless the same is excavated in solid rock, or built, or thoroughly lined with fireproof material; and all such stables shall be subject to regulations by the Bureau, including regulations as to use of hay or straw, ventilation, cleaning and sanitation, lights and precautions against fire.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 173. 1922, ch. 307, sec. 172.

173. No person shall go into or around a mine or the buildings or machinery connected therewith, while under the influence of intoxicants or deleterious drugs; nor shall any person use, carry, or have in his possession at, in, or around any such mine or the buildings or machinery connected therewith, any intoxicants or deleterious drugs; and any violation of this provision shall be a misdemeanor.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 174. 1922, ch. 307, sec. 173.

174. No male child under the age of sixteen years, nor female of any age, shall be employed, permitted or suffered to work in any capacity in, about or in connection with any mine; provided, that this section shall not apply to mine offices.

See art. 100.

CHAPTER XXVI—General Provisions.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 175. 1922, ch. 307, sec. 174.

175. Any person who neglects or refuses to perform the duties required of him by this sub-title, or by regulations duly made thereunder, or who violates any of the provisions or requirements thereof, shall, except as
