

work in any of the trades or occupations mentioned in section 29, unless he complies with all the legal requirements concerning school attendance and unless a permit and badge as hereinafter provided shall have been issued to him by the officer authorized to issue employment permits under this article, upon the application in person of the parent, guardian or custodian of the child desiring such permit and badge, or in case said child has no parent, guardian or custodian, then upon the application of his next friend, being an adult.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 31. 1912, sec. 29. 1912, ch. 731, sec. 29. 1916, ch. 222, sec. 29.

31. Such permit and badge shall not be issued until the officer issuing the same shall have received, examined and approved the following papers duly executed, viz:

(1) Evidence that such boy is of the age required by section 28 or 29, as the case may be. Such evidence of age shall consist of the proof of age required for the issuing of an employment certificate, as specified in section 14, subdivision (3) of this article.

(2) The written statement of the principal or chief executive officer of the school which the child is attending, stating that such child is an attendant at such school with the grade such child shall have attained. After having received, examined and approved such papers, the officer shall have authority in his discretion to issue to the child a permit and badge; provided, that in the case of a boy between the ages of fourteen and sixteen having an employment certificate, such certificate shall be accepted by the officer issuing such permit and badge in lieu of any other requirements. The officer issuing such permits and badges shall keep a complete list of all children to whom permits and badges have been issued as herein provided, and said officer may require every such child to deposit a sum of money equal to the cost price of said badge not to exceed fifty cents for each additional badge, which sum shall be returned to the child upon surrender of the badge.

An. Code, 1924, sec. 32. 1912, sec. 30. 1912, ch. 731, sec. 30. 1916, ch. 222, sec. 30.

32. Such permit shall state the name and the date and place of birth of the child, the name and address of the parent or guardian or custodian or next friend making application for such permit, and shall describe the color of the hair and eyes, the height and weight, and any distinguishing facial marks of such child, and shall further state that the papers required by the preceding sections have been duly examined and signed, and that the child named in such permit has personally appeared before the officer issuing the permit. The badge furnished by the officer issuing the permit shall bear on its face a number corresponding to the number of the permit. Every such permit on its reverse side shall be signed in the presence of the officer issuing the same by the child in whose name it is issued.

33. The badge provided for herein shall be worn conspicuously at all times by such child while so working. All such permits and badges shall expire one year from the date of issue, and no such permit or badge shall be authority beyond the period fixed therein for its duration.

No child to whom such permit and badge are issued shall transfer the same to any other person. He shall exhibit the same upon demand at
