

the purpose of relieving an accumulation of business in any [of said] court[s] assign any judge except a judge of the Orphans' Court to sit temporarily in any court except an Orphans' Court [designate and assign any judge of the Court of Appeals (if the assignment is to be made to an intermediate Court of Appeal), any judge of any intermediate Court of Appeal (other than that to which the assignment is to be made), any judge of any of the Circuit Courts for the counties or any Judge of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City to sit in any case or cases for a specified period of time as a Judge of the Court of Appeals or of any intermediate Court of Appeal (as the case may be) in lieu of a judge of such court. The Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals also may designate and assign, to sit as a Judge of the Circuit Court for any county or the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City and of any other court or courts of Baltimore City which may be held by a Judge of said Supreme Bench, either alone or with one or more other judges, in any case or cases or for a specified period, any Judge of the Court of Appeals or of any intermediate Court of Appeal or of any other Circuit Court or of the Supreme Bench of Baltimore City]. Any judge [designated and] assigned by the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals pursuant to this section shall have all the power and authority pertaining to a judge of the court to which he is so assigned; and his power and authority shall continue with respect to all cases (including any motion, or other matters incidental thereto) which may come before him by virtue of such [designation and] assignment until his action thereon shall be completed. In the absence of the Chief Judge of the Court of Appeals the provisions of this section shall be applicable to the senior judge present in said Court of Appeals. The powers of the Chief Judge under the foregoing provisions of this section shall be subject to such rules and regulations, if any, as the Court of Appeals may make. The Court of Appeals from time to time shall make rules and regulations to revise the practice and procedure in and the administration of the appellate courts and in the other courts of this State, which shall have the force of law until rescinded, changed or modified by the Court of Appeals or otherwise by law. The power of courts other than the Court of Appeals to make rules of practice and procedure, or administrative rules, shall be subject to the rules and regulations prescribed by the Court of Appeals or otherwise by law.

Part VI—District Court

41A.

The District Court shall have the original jurisdiction prescribed by law. Jurisdiction of the District Court shall be uniform throughout the State; EXCEPT THAT IN MONTGOMERY COUNTY SAID COURT MAY HAVE SUCH JURISDICTION OF JUVENILE CAUSES AS MAY BE PROVIDED BY LAW.

The District Court shall consist of the number of judges prescribed by law. The State shall be divided by law into districts. Each district shall consist of one county or two or more entire and adjoining counties. The number of Judges shall be allocated among the districts by law, and there shall be at least one District Court judge resident in each district. In any district containing more than one county, there shall be at least one District Court Judge ~~for~~ RESIDENT IN
