

ARTICLE XI.

Attorneys at Law and Attorneys in Fact.

The Act of 1862, ch. 177, amends section 18, as follows:

SEC. 1. The State's Attorney for each county shall, in such county, prosecute and defend on the part of the State all cases in which the State may be interested; and whenever in any case which he shall so prosecute founded on an indictment or presentment found in any county or the city of Baltimore, an appeal shall be taken by either party to the Court of Appeals, it shall also be the duty of said State's Attorney to prosecute or defend, as the case may be, said appeal in the Court of Appeals, for which service he shall be entitled to such compensation as may be allowed by the county commissioners of the county where said presentment or indictment was found, or by the Criminal Court of Baltimore where indictment was found in said city, to be levied, collected and paid as other costs now are in such cases; and in no such case shall counsel fees be paid by the State, unless to counsel specially retained by the Governor.

The Act of 1862, ch. 179, repeals section 16, and enacts the following substitute:

2. No Register of Wills, or deputy register, clerk of any court, or deputy clerk, shall practice as an attorney at law in any of the courts of this State, for any person or persons.

ARTICLE XII.

Banks.

The Act of May 3, 1861, ch. 5, suspends sections 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 8, 9, of this Article, and enacts as follows:

SEC. 1. No corporation of this State, authorized to issue notes for circulation, shall be subject to any forfeiture or penalty for not redeeming such notes in specie before the eleventh day of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-two.
