

PARTRIDGES.

1864, c. 309 adds the following :

1864, c. 309, s. 1.
Partridges
protected,

59. No person or persons shall trap or shoot, or in any manner catch or kill any partridges in Worcester county, between the fifteenth day of February and the fifteenth day of October, in each year.

Ibid s. 2.
Shooting, &c, at night prohibited.

60. It shall not be lawful for any person or persons to trap or shoot, or in any manner catch or kill any partridges in the county aforesaid, at any season, in any year, during the night time.

Ibid. s. 3
Penalty.

61. Any person violating either of the preceding sections of this article, shall pay a fine of five dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered before a justice of the peace, one-half of said fine to go to the school fund, and the other half to the informer.

In force from June 1, 1864.

POCOMOKE RIVER.

See 1862, c. 171 under Public General Laws, Art. XLI, Fish and Fisheries, by which act Fish are protected in said river above Porter's bridge.

ROADS.

See the act of 1867, c. 290 relating to Public Roads in the counties of Worcester, Somerset, Anne Arundel, Prince George's, Calvert and Montgomery, under Public General Laws, Art. XXVIII, County Commissioners.

1867, c. 287 enacts the following :

1867, c. 287.
County road from Delaware state line.

62. The commissioners of Worcester county are hereby authorized and directed to accept and establish the road near the Delaware state line as a county road, beginning at the Delaware state line and running until it intersects the old county road, leading from the town of Laurel, in Delaware, to the town of Salisbury, in Somerset [now in Wicomico] county; and said road shall be considered as the division line between that portion of Somerset and Worcester counties.

In force from March 22, 1867