

1870, c. 96 enacts that the names of only one hundred and fifty persons, duly qualified as jurors, shall be selected and placed in the box from which the jurors for service from Somerset county, and the like number of only one hundred and fifty persons as aforesaid from Worcester county, are to be drawn, and that so much of the general law, as requires the selection of two hundred names for the box in each of said counties, is hereby repealed, so far as the same relates to Somerset and Worcester counties.

Approved and in force March 23, 1870.

ARTICLE LI.

Justices of the Peace.

10 If a justice in Baltimore dies papers to be delivered to clerk of city court 69. Proceedings when execution on judg-	ment is levied on property claimed by a third party. security on appeal. 70. Judgment on appeal.
---	--

1870, c. 39 amends and re-enacts section 10 as follows:

SEC. 10. If a justice in Baltimore city dies, resigns or is removed, the delivery of the docket and papers shall be made to the clerk of the city court within the time mentioned in the preceding sections; and the clerk of the court of common pleas is hereby required to transfer the dockets of justices now in his custody to the clerk of the said city court.

1870, c. 39.
If a justice in Baltimore dies, papers to be delivered to clerk of city court.

Approved and in force February 19, 1870.

1870, c. 84 adds the following sections:

69. When an execution on a judgment of a justice of the peace is levied upon property claimed by any person other than the party against whom it issued, such person or his agent or attorney may apply to a justice of the peace of the county or corporation in which the levy is for a warrant to a constable, requiring him to summon both the judgment creditor and debtor, to show cause why the property so levied upon

1870, c. 84.
Proceedings when execution on judgment is levied on property claimed by a third party.