The preceding sections shall not apply to Baltimore, Harford or Cecil counties, as to which special provision is made in the local laws thereof.

Birds and Game.

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 98, sec. 13. 1878, ch. 460. 1882, ch. 139. 1888, ch. 29.

13. No person shall shoot or in any manner catch, kill or have in possession any partridge between the first day of February (said day included) and the first day of November next ensuing in each and every year; nor any woodcock, between the first day of February and the fifteenth day of June; nor any pheasant between the first day of January (said day included) and the fifteenth day of August; nor any rabbit between the fifteenth day of January and the fifteenth day of October; nor shall any person trap or destroy or molest the eggs or nests of any of the said birds at any time. This section shall not apply to Dorchester county.

Ibid. sec. 14. 1858, ch. 263, sec. 4.

14. No person keeping a tavern, restaurant or eating house, nor any market man, shall expose for sale or have in his possession in this State any partridge, woodcock or pheasant, between the times within which the killing of such birds is forbidden by the preceding section.

Ibid. sec. 15. 1862, ch. 43. 1878, ch. 460.

15. Any person violating either of sections 13 or 14, shall pay a fine of not more than ten dollars for each and every partridge, woodcock, pheasant or rabbit shot or in any manner caught, killed, or in his possession; or for any partridge trapped, or for any egg or nest molested or destroyed contrary to section 13; said fines to be recovered before a justice of the peace of the county or city where the offence is committed, or by indictment in the court having criminal jurisdiction in the county or Baltimore city where the offence is committed; and in default of payment of the fine or fines imposed hereunder, the offender shall be committed
