

P. G. L., (1860,) art. 9, sec. 8. 1763, ch. 23, sec. 9.

9. The assignee of any bond or other obligation under seal that has been assigned under hand and seal, may maintain an action in his own name against the obligor therein named—and if such obligor shall be unable to pay the debt mentioned in the obligation, or cannot be found in the place or county of his usual abode, or any other thing or casualty should happen whereby the assignee should not be able to recover his debt from the obligor, an action may be maintained by the assignee against the obligee in such obligation, unless the assignee be a surety therein; provided, that where any debt shall be lost by the negligence or default of the assignee, the assignor shall not be liable.
