P. G. L., (1860,) art. 10, sec. 14. 1715, ch. 40, sec. 4. 1860, ch. 28.

13. No sheriff or other officer shall levy by way of execution against the garnishee more than the plaintiff's debt and cost, nor more than what the said plaintiff shall make appear to be the value of the property and credits attached in the hands of such garnishee, together with such costs only as the garnishee shall put the plaintiff to by denying himself to be indebted to the defendant, and contesting the same; and upon any judgment of condemnation nisi against any garnishee for want of appearance or plea, the plaintiff shall be at liberty to proceed and prove his case in the same manner as in any judgment by default ex parte, and not otherwise, by proof of his debt, and also of the amount of the assets of the defendant in the hands of the garnishee properly subject to attachment; and no judgment of condemnation nisi shall be made absolute without such proof; provided, that in all cases in which a garnishee has been summoned, at any time after the return of the writ, the plaintiff may file interrogatories in the cause, which shall be served by the sheriff upon the garnishee within ten days thereafter; or if the garnishee shall be a non-resident of the State, shall be served upon the garnishee by some person to be appointed by the court in which the case is pending; and if the garnishee shall fail to answer said interrogatories within twenty days after the service of the interrogatories upon him, then, upon proof of such service, the plaintiff shall be entitled to judgment against the garnishee for the amount of the claim of the plaintiff for which the attachment was issued.

Lafin v. B & O R R. Co, 63 Md. 76.

Ibid. sec. 15. 1795, ch. 56, sec. 4.

14. The garnishee in every attachment issued in pursuance of the preceding sections, may plead in behalf of the defendant, any plea or pleas which the defendant might or could plead if the summons had been served upon him and he had appeared.
