

Baltimore city, and all cities, towns or boroughs in which dogs are taxed by municipal ordinance, are exempted from the operation of sections 157-162 of article 81 of the code of public general laws, title "Revenue and Taxes," relating to the taxation of dogs in this State.

EAST NEW MARKET.

1884, ch. 520.

138. The inhabitants of East New Market are a body corporate by the name of "The Commissioners of East New Market," and as such shall have perpetual succession, and by that name may sue and be sued, purchase and hold real, personal and mixed property, or dispose of the same for the benefit of said town, and may have and use a common seal, which they may alter at pleasure.

Ibid.

139. The limits of said town shall begin at a stock driven on the side of the county road leading from East New Market to Cabin creek, near the division line between Mrs. Baker's lot and John Webster's farm, and shall run from thence north twenty-six and a half degrees, west one hundred and eighty perches; thence south twenty-six and a half degrees, east one hundred and sixty perches; thence north eighteen and a half degrees, east one hundred and eighty perches; thence north twenty-six and a half degrees, west eighty perches, to the beginning.

Ibid

140. There shall be five commissioners for said town, who shall hold office for two years from the date of their election, or until their successors are duly elected and qualified, who shall be elected by ballot by the qualified voters of said town, and each of whom shall be at least twenty-five years of age and a bona fide resident of said town for at least twelve months next preceding the date of his election, and shall also possess in his own right, or in the right of his wife, real or leasehold property in said town, of the assessed value of two hundred dollars.

Ibid.

141. The male inhabitants of said town above the age of twenty-one years, who have resided in said town for six months
