

lic places, by either written or printed notice, posted within the district or part of district wherein said stock are taken, describing the stock so impounded; and he shall proceed to sell said stock at public auction, for cash, after giving ten days' notice from the time such stock was taken up; provided, the owner shall have the return of said stock on paying all the expenses of keeping the stock, and all other costs, including fifty cents for taking up each of said stock.

1884, ch. 224. 1888, ch. 215.

227. If any person shall take up any stock, such person shall impound the same, and shall at once notify the constable, who shall immediately proceed to give the notice and make the sale upon the same terms and in the same manner as provided in the preceding section, and the owner shall have the return of said stock on the conditions provided in that section; and for making a sale under this section, the constable shall be allowed the same commissions now allowed by law for the sale of personal property under execution; this provision for commissions not to apply to sales of stock taken up by the constable himself.

Ibid.

228. The said constable shall, out of the monies arising from such sale, first pay the person taking up the stock, and the costs, charges and expenses incurred, and damages sustained by the person upon whose land said stock was trespassing, said damages to be ascertained upon the oath of two disinterested sworn appraisers, and the balance, if any, to the owner of such stock; and should no one claim said balance as owner within sixty days after said sale, the constable shall pay the same to the treasurer of the school fund of the county, for the benefit of the public schools of said county.

MILLS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 10, sec. 125.

229. The master, owner, miller or other person properly belonging to or owning any horse or wind mill in Dorchester county may take and receive for grinding any quantity of corn or rye the sixth part thereof.