

case, or to the sheriff of said county, or his deputy, and by them shall be paid into the public school fund of said county; and a failure by the said justice, sheriff or his deputy to pay said fine within thirty days after receipt of the same, to the public school fund, shall be deemed a misdemeanor, and shall subject said justice, sheriff or deputy, to a fine double the amount received by them, to be recovered by indictment or suit.

1886, ch. 206.

260. The school commissioners, before the fifteenth day of September of each year, shall furnish to the clerk of the circuit court the requisite number of printed blank licenses in such form as directed by section 255, and take his receipt for the same; and the clerk shall return to the said school commissioners at the end of the scraping season all the blank printed licenses not issued to scrapers; he shall be allowed as a fee for each license the sum of fifty cents, and shall pay the residue of the license money into the public school fund of said county, quarterly, at the same time delivering to said commissioners an itemized statement of each license issued, containing the name of the boat, tonnage and owner.

Ibid.

261. It shall be the duty of the sheriff, constable or officer to the State fishery force, to arrest any person and to seize any boat found violating any of the provisions of sections 253 to 262, inclusive, and take them at once before a justice of the peace of said county for an immediate hearing, or before a judge having criminal jurisdiction, to be dealt with according to law; and any person who shall resist any officer authorized under any of said sections to make arrests, shall be deemed guilty of a felony, and upon indictment and conviction thereof in any court having jurisdiction, shall be imprisoned in the house of correction not less than six months nor more than one year, in the discretion of the court; the parties tried and acquitted shall have the cost of such trial paid by the treasurer of said county.

Ibid.

262. For all violations of sections 253 to 262, inclusive, the owner of the boat shall be liable to the same monied fines and
